NAPA VALLEY WINERY

8 OUTSTANDING CALIFORNIA SAUVIGNON BLANCS

Golden State whites from Napa, Sonoma and Santa Barbara,
all at 90+ points

By MaryAnn Worobiec, Feb 10, 2020 WINESPECTATOR.com

Napa Valley is best-known for its rich, decadent Cabernets. But in this week's selection, we're highlighting the region's fresh Sauvignon Blancs, distinctive Chardonnays and structured Merlots.

Tasting Highlights' wine reviews are fresh out of the tasting room, offering a sneak peek of our editors' most recent scores and notes to WineSpectator.com members.

PHIFER PAVITT

Sauvignon Blanc Napa Valley Date Night 2018

Score: 91pts

Succulent, with notes of beeswax, honeysuckle and lanolin adding some intrigue to the peach and citrus flavors at the core. A note of nutmeg emerges on the long, expressive finish. Drink now. 1,241 cases made.—M.W.
